Product information

Who needs everyday reality when you can have a luscious, pink Dream of a shoe?

Kurt Geiger's daring Dream stilettos give a nod and a wink to the kitsch 1950s housewife, but it's the spiked 14cm heel and platform sole that throw in a dash of burlesque spice.

Made from real leather, it has an adjustable buckle and a slightly rounded toe for manoeuvrability. And let's not forget the star-studded sole - glamour is in the details, after all.
