

RULE BREAKER

You know us. We don't condone design clichés - especially (wince) pink on Valentine's. But what can we say. Sometimes a piece comes along and just melts your heart, like Margot. The velvet accent chair that ripped up the rule book.

SHOP MARGOT

Refined design

Made in the UK with British designer Matt Arquette, in smooth pink velvet and copper. Sketch Gallery, eat your heart out.

Petite seat

Good news for those with small spaces - this piece has a compact footprint. It looks incredible in a bay window or alcove, too.
